

Dr Jess Melle graduated from the U of S in Family Medicine in 2009. He has practiced family, emergency, and addictions medicine in Rosthern since that time. He has done clinical and advisory work for federal corrections since 2010, currently working at Saskatchewan Penitentiary and Willow Cree Healing Lodge. He is currently the Primary Care Physician Lead for CSC's Prairie Region and the President of the Section of Family Practice with the SMA