

Sgt. Greg Smith has over 20 years of experience in the RCMP, with all of his service being in Saskatchewan. He began his career in 2003, posted to the La Loche Detachment after graduating from Depot. He then transferred to Yorkton in 2005, where he worked at the Municipal Detachment, the Municipal General Investigation Section, and the Provincial General Investigation Section. In 2009, he promoted to the rank of Corporal and returned to the La Loche Detachment. In 2011, he transferred to the Swift Current Municipal Detachment. In 2014, he was transferred to the Integrated Organized Crime Section in Regina. In 2015, he promoted to the rank of Sergeant and was the Detachment Commander in Canora. In 2018, Sgt. Smith transferred to the Yorkton Provincial General Investigation Section. And in 2023, Sgt. Smith transferred to the newly created Saskatchewan Trafficking Response Team in Yorkton. In this role, Sgt. Smith's team is mandated to investigate drug, firearm, and human trafficking.