

April 11 - 12, 2014 | Saskatoon, SK
Saskatoon Inn

Optimizing Health For Older Adults: Safety across the Continuum of Care

An interprofessional conference for physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, pharmacists, social workers, occupational therapists, physical therapists, and other health professionals.

Keynote Presentations by:

Samir K. Sinha MD, DPhil, FRCPC - Director of Geriatrics, Mount Sinai & University Health Network Hospitals, Toronto, ON
Connie Davis, RN, MN, GNP, BC (Gerontological NP, Board Certified) - Hope BC - Safety Issues for the Older Adult
Heather White, OT & Kathryn Hominick, SW - Capital District Health Authority, Halifax NS - Dignity of Risk

Conference Topics Include:

- Balance and Falls Risk Assessment • Maintaining Independence • Optimizing Medications in Older Adults
- Diabetes • Delirium Across the Continuum of Care • Managing Palliation • Advanced Care Directives
- Building an Interprofessional Falls Team • Dementia • Safe Transitions • Non-pharmaceutical pain management
- Age Friendly Community

Registration Fees:

Physicians

Early Bird until March 20 $451.50 ($430.00 + $21.50 GST)
Regular Fee March 21 and after $504.00 ($480.00 + $24.00 GST)

Other Health Professionals

Early Bird until March 20 $325.50 ($310.00 + $15.50 GST)
Regular Fee March 21 and after $378.00 ($360.00 + $18.00 GST)

Residents/Full-time Students

Flat Rate $157.50 ($150.00 + $7.50 GST)

To register online visit www.usask.ca/cme
Early Bird Registration Deadline March 20, 2014

Offered Jointly by:

Continuing Professional Learning, College of Medicine
Continuing Physical Therapy Education, College of Medicine
Continuing Education and Development for Nurses, College of Nursing

For More Information

www.usask.ca/cme
www.usask.ca/cpte
www.usask.ca/nursing/cedn