

Anupam Thakur, MBBS, MD, MSc (Medical Education)

Dr. Anupam Thakur is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Toronto. He is a psychiatrist and education scholar at Centre for Addiction and Mental Health and Psychiatrist-in-Chief at Surrey Place, Toronto. He is also the co-chair of the Developmental Disabilities section in Canadian Psychiatric Association and Mental Health lead for the Developmental Disabilities Primary Care Program.

His education research interests are focussed on building capacity and expertise in intellectual and developmental disabilities, leadership development and enhancing medical education using technology.