

Dr. Tian is a General Internist and Addiction Medicine specialist. After completing training in General Internal Medicine at the University of Saskatchewan, she pursued fellowship training in Addiction Medicine at the British Columbia Centre on Substance Use. Dr. Tian serves as a physician at the Rapid Access to Addiction Medicine team in Saskatoon where she provides both inpatient and outpatient consultations. In addition to her clinical responsibilities, she is also involved in medical education and research.