

SEMAC 2016

October 14 & 15, 2016
Ramada Hotel, Regina, SK

DRAFT Conference Schedule - Subject to Revision

Version 8.0 - October 4, 2016

TIME	SESSION	Friday, OCTOBER 14, 2016	ROOM
7:30 AM	Registration and Breakfast		Mezzanine Lobby
8:00 AM	Welcome Remarks - Dr. Christina Ames Social Media at #SEMAC16 - Dr. Brent Thoma		Canadian Ballroom
8:15 AM	P-1 Is your Emergency Department Senior Friendly? Dr. Debra Eagles Participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Re-evaluate your Approach to the Older Emergency Department Patient- Use the Geriatric Emergency Department Guidelines to make your Emergency Department Senior Friendly		Canadian Ballroom
9:10 AM	P-2 Mindgames: Cognition in Airway Management Dr. James Huffman Participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Describe cognitive load theory and expert clinical decision making as it applies to emergency airway management- List and describe strategies which can be used to effectively manage cognitive load during airway emergencies- Explain the value of incrementalization and using a checklist in emergency airway management		Canadian Ballroom
10:00 AM	REFRESHMENT BREAK / EXHIBITS		Mezzanine Lobby
10:15 AM	CONCURRENT SESSIONS: C-1 Case Based Approach to Common Geriatric Presentations Dr. Debra Eagles Participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Integrate functional assessments into discharge planning for geriatric EM patients- Recognize the potential life-threatening implications of common vague geriatric presentations- Safely approach the management of geriatric patients who have fallen C-2 Pediatric Sepsis Dr. Mona Jabbour Participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Demonstrate use of the Sepsis PedsPac in recognition and managing a pediatric patient with severe sepsis		Canadian Ballroom Birch Room

C-3 Transport Medicine Panel

Cedar Room

Wayne Therres, Dr. Terry Ross

Participants will be able to:

- Describe logistical issues related to the transport of patients from rural to urban centres
- Communicate effectively to optimize transports
- Anticipate potential medical issues arising during transport and prepare patients appropriately
- Relate transport issues to the experiences of rural physicians and paramedics

C-4 Obstetrical Emergencies

Maple Room

Dr. Rashmi Bhargava

Participants will be able to:

- Diagnose and manage the following obstetrical emergencies:
 - Pre-eclampsia/eclampsia
 - Antepartum hemorrhage including previa and abruption
- Describe an approach to managing patients with the above emergencies in rural/regional centres without access to on-site OBGYN consultations

C-5 STARS Bus

RAMADA Front Entrance

Denise Treleaven, Dr. Kish Lyster

Participants will be able to:

- Provide adequate ventilatory support to the patient with a metabolic acidosis
- Demonstrate compensation using Winters formula

11:00 AM

RELOCATION BREAK

11:15 AM

REPEAT OF 10:15 AM CONCURRENT SESSIONS

12:00 PM

LUNCH

Canadian Ballroom & Mezzanine Lobby

12:00 PM

By Invitation

Career Dialogues (supported by SaskDocs)

Maple Room

Dr. Kish Lyster, Dr. Brent Thoma, Dr. Reid McGonigle, Dr. Desiree Rouleau, Dr. Tamzyn Levendal

Medical students and residents will learn about varied career paths in Emergency Medicine

1:00 PM

P-3 Clinical Pathology Cases

Canadian Ballroom

Dr. Werner Oberholzer, Dr. Mike Barnett, Dr. James Huffman, Dr. Dalynne Peters, Dr. Riley Hartmann, Dr. Ankit Kapur

3 Residents will present challenging diagnostic cases to three different attending physicians. The Resident will present their case for 5 minutes; the Attending Physician will have 10 minutes to describe their approach to the case and the top items on their Differential Diagnosis. The Resident will then have 5 minutes to reveal the answer. At the conclusion, the audience will select the top Diagnostician.

2:00 PM

Relocation Break

TIME	SESSION	ROOM
2:15 PM	C-6 Sexual Assault Kit and Other Legal Considerations Dr. Sarah Liskowich, Stephanie Carlson, Cst. Erin McLeod - Recognize the components of and effectively utilize the latest version of the RCMP's Sexual Assault Kit - Describe the legal requirements and expectations of care providers involved with sexual assault victims	Maple Room
	C-7 Leading Change in Emergency Healthcare Dr. Werner Oberholzer Participants will be able to: - Describe the evolving roles of the Emergency Physicians in accountability and advocacy.	Birch Room
	C-8 Managing Pain in Pediatric Trauma - Common cases and how we can do better Dr. Janet Ferguson Participants will be able to: - be comfortable with an approach to managing pain and anxiety in pediatric patients in cases of minor and major trauma - be aware of the evidence surrounding controversial topics in the management of pediatric trauma	Cedar Room
	C-9 Sound Check Round 2 Dr. Paul Olszynski, Dr. Reid McGonigle, Dr. Brent Thoma, Dr. Michael Kapusta, Anton Moshynskyy, Pj Vertue, Laura Miller Participants will be able to: - Review the findings of the first Sound Check survey that was sent to rural and regional clinicians related to POCUS training, quality and research - Discuss in both small and large group discussion sessions ideas to help steer the Sound Check project further - making sure the project, and the initiatives borne from it, meet the POCUS needs and realities of our colleagues in rural Saskatchewan	Canadian Ballroom
	C-10 STARS Bus Denise Treleaven, Dr. Kish Lyster - Provide adequate ventilatory support to the patient with a metabolic acidosis - Demonstrate compensation using Winters formula	RAMADA Front Entrance
3:00 PM	REFRESHMENT BREAK / EXHIBITS	Mezzanine Lobby
3:15 PM	REPEAT OF 2:15 PM CONCURRENT SESSIONS
4:00 PM	RELOCATION BREAK
4:15 PM	P-4 The Many Faces of Ketamine Dr. Samina Ali Participants will be able to: - Understand the appropriate indications for ketamine use in children - Know how to dose ketamine, based on route and goal of administration	Canadian Ballroom
5:00 PM	Radford Cup Hosted by Dr. Lynsey Martin Participants will engage in an informal competition among students and Residents, discussing a variety of emergency medicine topics.	Canadian Ballroom

TIME	SESSION	Saturday, OCTOBER 15, 2016	ROOM
7:30 AM	Registration Breakfast		Mezzanine Lobby Mezzanine Lobby
8:00 AM	Welcome Remarks 2015 SEMAC Research Grant Recipient Update Dr. Zafrina Poonja		Canadian Ballroom
8:20 AM	P-5 The Opioid Epidemic Dr. Scott Lucyk Participants will be able to: - Understand the different opioids contributing to the growing epidemic - Describe the approach to diagnosis and management of opioid overdose and withdrawals		Canadian Ballroom
9:10 AM	P-6 My Patient is in Shock! What Pressor Should I Use? Dr. Rob Keyes Participants will be able to: - Select appropriate vasopressors for the management of shock due to various etiologies - Describe current guidelines for the management of sepsis, including the use of prednisone and vasopressor support		Canadian Ballroom
10:00 AM	Refreshment/Nutrition Break		Mezzanine Lobby
10:15 AM	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	C-11 Toxicology Cases Dr. Scott Lucyk Participants will be able to: - Describe the approach to diagnosis and management of toxicologic bradycardia Understand potential uses for lipid emulsion therapy - Describe the approach to diagnosis and management of serotonin toxicity		Canadian Ballroom
	C-12 POCUS in Trauma Care (EFAST) Dr. Jamey Samson Participants will be introduced to the extended FAST exam that includes thoracic ultrasound for the detection of pneumothorax and hemothorax. The session will include a review of the indications for FAST (and EFAST), the evidence supporting its use, its role in ATLS, and some basic tips/tricks of the trade for those already familiarized with POCUS.		Maple Room
	C-13 Steroid Overview Dr. Rob Keyes Participants will be able to: - Describe the physiology of endogenous and exogenous steroids - Recognize clinical situations requiring the use of steroids - develop a practical approach for the use of steroids in emergency medicine		Cedar Room

C-14 STARS Bus

RAMADA Front Entrance

Denise Treleaven, Dr. Kish Lyster

Participants will be able to:

- Provide adequate ventilatory support to the patient with a metabolic acidosis
- Demonstrate compensation using Winters formula

11:00 AMRELOCATION BREAK*11:15 AM*REPEAT OF 10:15 AM CONCURRENT SESSIONS*12:00 PMConference Adjournment