

Dr Larissa Kiesman, BSc, MD, CCFP received her medical degree from the University of Saskatchewan in 2009. She is a family physician and the medical director at the Westside Community Clinic, with sub-specialization in HIV Care, Addictions Medicine and care for vulnerable patients. She is employed with the Saskatchewan Health Authority through the Opioid Assisted Recovery Services as a methadone/buprenorphine prescriber and also works in corrections. She has passion for providing interdisciplinary, team-based care to vulnerable and inner-city populations.