

Morris Markentin - University of Saskatchewan graduate and completed his residency in Family Medicine. Currently works as a family physician at the Westside Community Clinic providing full service family medicine with a special interest in chronic viral illnesses - HIV and Hepatitis C as well as addictions. Have been a OAT prescriber for 15 years with the OPiate Agonist Therapy clinic for the SHA in Saskatoon. Currently the medical manager for the OAT program with the College of Physicians and Surgeons.